

OGDEN HOOPSTERS MEET IN IMPORTANT GAMES TONIGHT

TIGERS WILL SEEK VICTORY IN BIG FRAGAS

Losing Team in Ogden-Box Elder Game Will Be Out of Race

OGDEN DIVISION
Standing of the Teams

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Weber Normal	3	1	.750
Ogden High	2	2	.500
Box Elder	1	3	.250
Davis High	0	4	.000

Tonight's Card.
At Ogden—Ogden vs. Box Elder.
At Kayville—Davis vs. Weber.

The deciding game of the year the percentage column notes—the Ogden High-Box Elder battle—will take place at the Ogden high school gymnasium this evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp. This contest, like the Weber-Ogden contest, is of importance to both teams and the largest crowd in the history of the indoor game is expected to attend. The team losing tonight will be practically out of the race, while the five winning, should stand a good chance at landing the championship. The Ogden division enter the state tournament the same time this evening should be hotly contested.

FAVOR TIGERS
Adherents of the Orange and Black are confident that Coach Carl Peterson's charges will be victorious tonight. They expect a battle, however, but believe the charges of the Tiger will win. The team losing tonight will be practically out of the race, while the five winning, should stand a good chance at landing the championship. The Ogden division enter the state tournament the same time this evening should be hotly contested.

PROBABLE LINEUP
Coach Earl Ferguson is expected to start the contest with Ellison and Kroschak at forward, Lyons and Thomas guards. The return of Thomas to the Tiger lineup is certain to aid the local five.

In the other contest the Weber Normal cagers will mix with the Davis quint on the Kayville floor. The Wildcats recently defeated the Davis five on the local floor 48 to 35. With "Bonney" Jones in the Weber lineup the locals are the favorites to win. Davis upset the dogs last Friday by trouncing Box Elder and Coach Anderson's charges hope to repeat against the local five.

Coach Malcolm Watson will start Budge and Connel at forward, Jones at center, Anderson and Halliday guards. Bishop and Love will play the forward positions for the Davis five, while Adams and Smith will be at center. Linford and Harvey will be featured at the guard positions.

STRIKES and SPARES

Representatives of the superintendent's office of the Southern Pacific railroad in Ogden exchanged shots at the Wasatch Athletic club last night at Bowling. The "Lean" men defeated the "Fat" men 187 to 186. Following are the scores:

Team	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Total

Totals	642	588	643	1873

(Note—Department heads of Southern Pacific company in superintendent's office at Ogden.)

There are runners on second and third. Runner on second is caught on that base. In the run up, the runner on second reached third in safety, causing the runner on that base to dash for home. The ball is thrown to the catcher who steps on the plate. Does that retire the runner who came in from third? Is it a forceout?

Such a play as described is not a forceout. Touching the plate does not retire the runner. He must be touched with the ball before reaching the plate.

A forceout can only be legally made when a base runner legally loses the right to the base he occupies, by reason of the batsman's action as a runner, and he is thereby forced to vacate.

STINMETZ LEADS IN TROPHY CONTEST

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 9.—William Stinmetz, Chicago ice speedster, had things about his own way in the opening events of the diamond trophy championship, Thursday, by winning both the mile and 220-yard events. Stinmetz, who won the international championship at Saranac Lake last week, took a big lead in the field of the five amateurs qualified to compete for the trophy. His day's work gave him 60 points.

Joe Moore of New York earned 39 points. Charles Fretwell garnered 31 points, and Charles Gorman of St. John, N. B., the other competitor, failed to place.

LEONARD IS NOT WORRIED OVER ROCKY KANSAS CHAMPION TO RISK HIS TITLE IN 15-ROUND BOUT TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Rocky Kansas, rugged Italian pugilist of Buffalo, will tonight get his second chance at the world's lightweight title in a 15-round decision bout with Champion Benny Leonard.

In an open-air arena in Harrison, N. J., last summer Kansas met the champion in a contest for 15 rounds. A no-decision contest as required by New Jersey law, and Leonard was acclaimed the victor on points by a majority of flaccid experts in attendance. Benny took quite a number of solid wallops in that contest, but withstood them with apparent ease, returning two blows for one. He never was in danger of a knockout.

THREE WAYS OUT.
Tonight's encounter will be different from that in New Jersey as New York permits decisions, and Leonard cannot take chances.

The champion can lose his title three ways in tonight's contest—by decision on points, by being knocked out or by committing a foul, with consequent disqualification. He can retain his crown by knocking out his opponent, winning a decision on points, by being fouled or by a decision of draw contest.

Leonard is famous for his hitting and even if he is unable to knock out Kansas, is favored by majority of experts to win a decision on points.

Leonard in science, speed and hitting power, has been compared with Joe Gans in his prime, while the strength, endurance and combative nature of the Buffaloon have recalled the careers of Ad Wolgast, Battling Nelson and Kid Lavigne.

BY BILLY EVANS.
Rocky Kansas is to get another shot at the lightweight title when he meets Champion Benny Leonard on Friday in New York.

The bout is to be 15 rounds to a decision. While Leonard is picked to retain his title without much difficulty, Kansas unquestionably has a chance.

As far as class is concerned, it is all with Leonard, yet Kansas is the type of fighter who must be feared. He is strong, willing and has plenty of courage. He likes to fight. That makes him dangerous.

Kansas is a peculiar looking fighter. He is short of stature with hairy chest and long arms, which are constantly flying through space, in a hope to land a blow with a vital spot on his opponent.

Last year was a big one for Kansas. He jumped from the ordinary performer to a championship contender.

He scored knockouts over such good boys as Jimmy Duffy, Richie Mitchell and Bobby Ward.

KANSAS ADVANCES.
Kansas also received the decision over such classy performers as Willie Jackson, Lew Tendler, Frankie Britt and Johnny Ray.

One June 1921, Kansas had a chance at the title, when he met Leonard in a 12-round bout at Harrison, N. J. It was a no-decision affair, as Kansas only chance was to win by a knockout. Leonard was the master of the situation at all times, although Kansas was always dangerous and finished strong.

Leonard is taking the coming bout most seriously. He is confident that Leonard is in for a busy evening. If training and effort mean anything, Kansas has a great chance.

AGGIES MEET PROVO QUINT

Saturday Game Important Tussle in Collegiate Athletic Center

The big fracas in collegiate hoop circles will take the floor at Provo Saturday night when the Utah Aggie quint mixes with the B. Y. C. cagers in a regular scheduled league contest. Saturday's game will be the second for the Provo hoops in the collegiate race and the first for the Aggies. The "Y" artists defeated the University of Utah last Friday, 29 to 16, in a spirited game.

When the "Y" and Aggie cagers take the floor a number of substitutes will be in to go. Robinson, star forward of the Logans and Maughn, guard, will be out of the game due to illness. Cyril Hammond is also sick. Glenn Simmons, star athlete at the Provo hall, will be out of the game. He is suffering from a badly sprained ankle.

Truman Partridge has been named by Coach Alvin Twitcheell to replace the star.

Malcolm Watson of Ogden and Lee Simmons of Salt Lake were named today as officials for the game.

TROEH MAKES HIGH SCORE OF TOURNEY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 9.—Frank Troeh, Vancouver, Wash., national trapshooting star, broke 137 targets straight, missed his 138th and was in to go. Robinson, star forward of the Logans and Maughn, guard, will be out of the game due to illness. Cyril Hammond is also sick. Glenn Simmons, star athlete at the Provo hall, will be out of the game. He is suffering from a badly sprained ankle.

Harve Dixon, of Missouri, and R. A. King of Delta, Colo., tied for second with 141.

The interstate individual flyer cup was won by Harry Snyder, Kansas City, international champion, with 25 straight. Riley Thompson, Calneville, Mo., and W. B. Warren tied for second with 24. S. W. Renfro of Butte, Mont., B. F. Elbert, Des Moines, Ia., and Fred Ethen, Coffeyville, Kan., shared even for third honors with 22.

Five other snappy events will also be included on the program, it is announced.

BRIGHAM DIRECTORS HOLD BALL SESSION

BRIGHAM, Feb. 10.—Directors of the Brigham club of the Northern Utah league unanimously agreed last night that the $1250 salary limit as approved by the league directors was sufficient for the 1922 season. Sentiment also favored the playing of many Utah boys as possible, thus eliminating the enormous transportation expense.

J. Francis Merrill and Secretary W. V. Call were named as official league representatives.

A manager for the 1922 team will be named at an early date.

Evidently Leonard is not in the least worried, as his manager, Billie Gibson, has booked three fights that are to follow the Kansas affair.

Benny Leonard, whose right name is Benjamin Leinert, was born April 1, 1896, at Buffalo, N. Y.

Leonard is five feet five inches tall. He is supposed to defend the title at 135 pounds.

Many of the flaccid experts doubt the ability of Leonard to make the lightweight limit.

Leonard is a Hebrew. He has been under the management of Billy Gibson the greater part of his career.

Leonard has been fighting since 1912. He has twice been knocked out. In 1912 by Joe Shugrue in four rounds, and the following year by Frankie Fleming in five rounds.

PREHN WILL BATTLE DERN IN MAT TILT

(Special Dispatch)
SALT LAKE, Feb. 10.—Ira Dern will meet Paul Prehn, mat instructor at the University of Illinois, in a championship tussle at the Salt Lake theatre this evening. Prehn, who has won the feature championship at 153 pounds, which he won during the world war at Paris, is rated as one of the best fighters in the game and is expected to give Dern a real battle for honors.

The match will be best two of three falls to a finish.

Dean Parks of Provo will meet Douglas Beasley in the feature preliminary. Three other events will also be featured.

JOHNS TO BOX MIDGET SMITH

(Special Dispatch)
SALT LAKE, Feb. 10.—Jimmy Johns, Ogden lightweight, will meet Midget Smith of Midvale in the six round main event at the Manhattan club here Monday night. Promoter Hardy Downing announced today. This is a match that the local fans have been anxious to witness and with the signatures of both contestants down, Promoter Downing announces that the card for the coming week will easily outclass any other card of the season.

J. S. Glazebrook, manager of Billie Glazebrook and also Jimmie Johns, was instrumental in bringing the Ogden lightweight to the fight with Smith. Glazebrook took Glazebrook and Johns under his wing about seven weeks ago and has had both men in training at Lava, Hot Springs, Idaho, where both got into the pink of condition.

Five other snappy events will also be included on the program, it is announced.

GARLAND CAGERS TROUNCE B. Y. C.

GARLAND, Feb. 10.—The Garland A. C. trounced the B. Y. C. cagers of Logan here last night, 59 to 23 in a fast contest. The half ended 33 to 12 for Garland.

Gullimore, Gunderson and Hawes played good ball for the locals, while Osmond was the big star for the Logan players. The lineup and summary:

ATHLETE RECOVERS FROM SPINAL BREAK

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 10.—Harvey Foregren, former Syracuse university football star, who suffered a broken vertebrae of the back in the Syracuse-Calgate game last November, returned to his home from New York Thursday.

He stepped from the train unaided and was welcomed by his parents and several friends.

He was kept in a plaster cast for weeks in a New York hospital and has been pronounced fully recovered from his injury. He plans to spend a month at home resting and then return to his studies at Syracuse.

TARZAN VICTORIOUS IN 'COMEBACK' BOUT

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Tarnan Larkin, Minnesota woodsman, whose heavyweight pugilist aspirations were shaken several nights ago in two minutes of fighting with Salier Maxsted, "came back" Thursday, knocking out Carl Danner of Elizabeth, N. J., in the third round.

The woodsman battered Danner about the ring for two rounds and early in the third sent him down for the count with a series of rights to the head and body.

MIT CONTESTS ARE POSTPONED

Promoter Downing to Have Banner Double Header for Next Week

The boxing card scheduled for the Wasatch Athletic club tonight has been called off. The operation Thursday upon Jess Stringham, one of the principals of the Glazebrook-Stringham contest, the main event, resulted in the cancelling of the card.

Promoter Jim Downing, attempted to obtain a substitute for Bill Glazebrook at the eleventh hour, but was unable to locate a boxer of sufficient ability. Rather than give the fans a poor card he decided to halt the program for the present week.

Whether Stringham will be able to take on Glazebrook next week or not remains to be seen, but in the event that he is unable to enter the squared circle, a good opponent will be arrayed against Glazebrook.

A big double header with perhaps Jimmie Johns and Bill Glazebrook in the feature events will be listed on the next card next Friday night. It was announced today.

Money Declared Greatest Enemy Of College Sport

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Declaring he had turned down an offer of $1,000 to become a professional while attending Yale on $1.16 a week, Alonzo A. Stagg, University of Chicago athletic director, in an address Thursday blamed betting for the inroads of professionalism in college athletics and declared that these inroads were the most demoralizing thing in the world to clean athletics.

"Nothing is more demoralizing than the feeling, 'How much is it in for me?'" he said. "The athletic impulse starts in childhood and the stimulus changes as the boy grows older to that of emulation, of being a real part in a social group. Then, as he grows still older he becomes a part of more organized groups and college athletics is one of these developments."

"At that time competition becomes keener and the group impulse becomes stronger. Then as his skill develops there is a possibility that it may become capitalized. It is in that case, where competition becomes keen, that betting begins."

For that reason he is the first step toward professionalism. He finally is induced to become a professional, and generally the inducement is the result of some betting plan.

The temptation is strong but the American youth should be stronger. I know some of the boys need money, but the true American lad does not stoop to such a thing as the college's regulations to obtain money."

Since the bout is to a decision, his chances largely hinge on the possibility of a knockout.

For that reason he may be expected to put up an aggressive fight. Kansas feels he has learned much about Leonard from the previous bout.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 10.—Every preparation was made to enable Jean and Jacques Landry and Jacques Bergues to accomplish a winter ascent of Mount Rainier has been completed and the climbers early today were awaiting only favorable weather conditions for a start to the summit. A camp at Anvil Rock will serve as a base.

The signal corps of the United States army has established wire communication from Anvil Rock to the base of Mount Rainier and, in the belief of Captain Louis Canale, chief signal officer, Camp Lewis, Anvil Rock is the highest point from which regular army telephone equipment ever has been operated.

The races will take place at the Columbia, San Francisco, and Alex McBeth, Australia, and Percy Lawrence and Lloyd Thomas, comprising the San Francisco team.

FAUSKEE TOPS DOUBLES TARGET SHOOTERS WITH BIG AVERAGE FOR YEAR.

Sharman and Becker of Utah Finish Close in Race for National Honors; Minnesota Scattergun Artist Shatters 91.50 Per Cent

EVERY sportsman, or athlete, no matter what may be his specialty, is envied, respected and even feared. It is to use sporting parlance—(1) is able to come through in a pinch, (2) of which explains why Dave Fauskee, of Worthington, Minn., is admired by trapshooters. The more important the event, the better Dave shoots and it is not surprising that he won the high yearly average of North America on double targets in 1921.

To obtain a position on the ranking list a shooter must compete at 200 registered double targets within a year. Fauskee shot at that number for an average of .9150. Never has Dave won a National title in any department of the day target game and this is his first in No. 1 place on any ranking list, but last year, he was simply due—due to do something out of the ordinary, for he won the Minnesota State championship at double targets, then went to the Great Lakes zone championship tournament and won the doubles title.

PRaises FAUSKEE
Just below Fauskee on the doubles roll of honor is one of the hardest men to whip at any sort of shooting—E. F. Woodward, of Houston, Texas. Woodward has won the doubles title, has captured the spotlight of his home town with Walter Johnson, stands third on the doubles list. He may be called the "Joe Grimm of Trapshooters" inasmuch as he is a wonder where endurance is an important factor. He shot at more double targets than any man last year. Eichen and Woodward have notched up often with Chief Elmer C. Wheeler, of Pawhuska, Okla., and the number of targets each shot during 1921 proves that each tried valiantly to capture all doubles honors.

Wheeler is the best shot of the Indians who play the clay target game. He has won state and zone championships and, when he walks on any trap-shooting ground his opponents realize they must go some to beat him.

CHAMPION SEVENTH
The National Doubles champion, R. A. King, of Delta, Colo., stands seventh on the doubles ranking list. His top is quite a shot, whether it is singles or doubles. In 1919 King was No. 1 man on the doubles ranking list, and while he did not win his state championship at doubles last year, he packed away the doubles title of the Prairie zone. Then he went to Chicago and won the doubles championship of North America at present. Four times—1916, 1917, 1918—King won the Colorado state championship at singles. The twenty-five leading amateurs at doubles in 1921 follow:
